

THE KEHILLA

Volume 6 Issue 10

October 2010 Tishrei/Heshvan 5771

They say it takes a village to raise a child.

Well, along those same lines, it takes a village to educate a child. It's up to all of us to educate the children in our community. We have been greatly blessed by the talented Nate Breen and his teaching abilities. At this time, Nate is not going to be able to teach our Sunday School. The Education Committee recently met with some of the parents of our Sunday School students. Many issues were discussed—the individual needs of each student, how to move forward and start instruction again etc.

Dr. Jason Bloomberg challenged the parents. He said he'd be happy to teach some sessions if the parents would make that same commitment to their childrens Jewish education...if they would step up and commit to teaching some sessions.

Here's where YOU ALL come in....yes I said ALL....keep reading...

The Education Committee is challenging our members. Let's step up and put the many varied talents of our community to work. We all have something to offer and it's time to put it out there. What can you teach our little ones?

Jewish education is not limited to the Alef Bet. We have folks who can handle that, so don't worry if Hebrew isn't your strong suit. How about Jewish traditional foods? Kosher laws? Your favorite holiday? An interesting part of Jewish history? Your favorite story from the Torah? The options are virtually endless.

If we all volunteer to teach something to our kids, just think about how much more we'll learn ourselves. If we each study a topic to be able to teach it, our own knowledge is made stronger. Our community is made stronger. Our sense of belonging, of helping, of contributing is made stronger.

So, now it's up to you. What are you willing to do? Take a leap of faith and commit to teaching our children. You just might have some fun too!!

Please contact Phyllis Bloomberg or Morris Gardner, our Education Committee Chairs with your ideas for what you'd like to instruct.

...from the
Editor's Desk

Hi Friends,

Thanks to everyone who supports the Kehilla and sends me information. For those of you who sent in articles and didn't see them this month....they are appearing in November. I've not forgotten about you. I won't bore you with the details of what happened to my time this month so far!!

The cutoff will be October 30th
for publication in the November issue.

This of course is a goal date. As most of you have realized, if I can sneak something more in after that date, I'm happy to. For my part, I'm working on sticking to my production schedule better. I'll get there. Less job...more Kehilla...that needs to be the goal I think.

This is going to be fun....and VERY important....

The December issue is going to be sub-titled...

OOPS WE GOOFED!!!

Over time we've missed birthdays, anniversaries and special occasions. We've gotten things wrong not only in the Kehilla but in our Centennial Book. We've been all too human—made mistakes and hurt some feelings. We want to make it right. So, if we've missed you or someone you love, if we've gotten your information wrong, whatever we've done to step on our own toes....it's time to correct us.

Send in your corrections.

Tell us where we went wrong and set the record straight!!

If we oops'd and did something terribly amusing, send that in too. We can use the laugh!!!

Please send submissions to either bjscotto@yahoo.com or kehilla@mtsinaicheyenne.org

Thanks, Bonnie

GOT PICS???

Movie nights, board meetings, the See's Candy sale, congregational dinner....all great times to take some photos!...and then of course, send them into the Kehilla!!
We have way too much fun not to capture some memories.

It Doesn't Grow on Trees....

MONEY MATTERS

Rosalyn Baker, Treasurer

According to the financial report prepared by our CPA, as of August 31, 2010,

Mt. Sinai remains financially solvent with a positive cash flow. Our conservative budget has been effective. Thanks to all of you our pledges and donations are on target year to date.

The Yiddish Food Festival and the Centennial Celebration were profitable as well as enjoyable!

A most grateful note of appreciation to two of our members for their recent $10,000.00 donation to the Religious Leader Fund. This enabled the Mt. Sinai Board to negotiate an attractive, realistic salary package for our incoming Rabbi who will reside in Cheyenne .

In the coming months you will be sent a pledge letter for 2011. Please remember, our Synagogue needs your continued support to grow our Congregation.

Coming Soon...VERY SOON... Week in fact.....

Book is "If you Awaken Love" by Emuna Elon. This selection is from the 2009-2010 Hadassah's "On the Same Page" book selection

From Publishers Weekly

A Tel Aviv interior designer specializing in closed rooms and clients' privacy, 40-year-old Shlomtzion Drove closed herself off emotionally after her childhood sweetheart, Yair, broke off their engagement when his rabbi refused them his blessing. A rebound marriage, pregnancy and divorce quickly followed, as did an abandonment of the religious nationalism at the center of her relationship with Yair. Now it's the eve of Rabin's assassination in 1995, and Shlomtzion is a secular leftist who supports the Oslo peace accords and the dismantling of the controversial West Bank settlements. But when her daughter, Maya, undergoes a religious awakening and becomes engaged to Yair's son, Shlomtzion is forced to confront her old flame at his West Bank settlement home, and her pentup venom threatens to poison their children's happiness. West Bank resident Elon limns a vivid and dignified portrait of the Israeli religious minority, although at times her characters spout political rhetoric and Shlomtzion's overwritten obsession with Yair and their children's coincidental romance fails to suspend disbelief.
