

Torah Tidbits from Rabbi Larry Moldo

Read the Torah portion for this week, Shmini, in the context of Yom HaShoah v'HaG'vurah.

When life has handed you any similar situations, there are no appropriate words that do not appear trite and ill-meaning.

A comforting presence is all that we have at those moments.
Let us all strive to be that comforting presence.