• For ANYONE interested in studying Jewish religion, culture and history, such as interfaith couples, in-laws of Jews, those raising Jewish children, individuals considering conversion, and seekers of any faith or background who are curious about the Jewish spiritual path.

• “Judaism 101” implies beginners, but anyone who attended last year’s class is welcome at half-price!
There will be new material, so we added “201/301” to the title!

ALL are welcome. Whether you....

... are unaffiliated, practice another religion...or no religion

...wonder what Jews believe, do, or eat...

...are considering becoming Jewish...

Featuring:

- Rituals and concepts for Shabbat and all holidays
- Jewish history 1200 BCE – present (with videos in class or on-line)
- Holidays, Kosher laws, home rituals, lifecycle events (birth thru death)
- Israel, Holocaust, Antisemitism, and contemporary issues
- Ethics, values, theology, languages, “folkways”
- Required and optional reading with accessible books

Plus: a little Hebrew in each session, and songs for each major holiday

Important: This is NOT just a “conversion class,” but those desiring to accept Judaism who complete the class are eligible for conversion based upon meetings with the Rabbi

Attend one meeting free to see if it meets your needs! Upon payment you will be sent a link for the entire class
