

Connections and Reflections on Pesach Symbols

1. My personal “Mitzrayim” (“Egypt” or narrow place)
2. The “Pharaoh” that enslaved (or still enslaves) me was/is....
3. Even after I escaped from “Mitzrayim,” I found that I was still “enslaved” to....
4. “Ten Plagues” of my life or my local community:
5. “Ten Plagues” of the world:
6. Ways that I am free....Ways that I am still enslaved....
7. My prayers for others who may be “free” on the outside but still “slaves” on the inside....
8. At this Seder, my personal “Maror” (bitter herbs or bitter times)...
 ...which is “sweetened” by my “Charoset”...
9. My journey through the desert to Mt. Sinai to meet a God of my understanding...
10. Ways I am like Moses, Miriam (or any other Biblical heroine/hero):
11. I want to “bring the age of Elijah” by....
12. I am grateful for...